Further to my previous statement. My brother Michael William Beasley was a single man and came to live with us following the death of our father in July 1974. Michael had received a secondary education at a local school in DPA and since leaving school at the age of 15 yrs he had been employed at Patrick Motors, Selly Oak as a stock controller. He was very interested in films both at the cinemas and he had his own 8 m.m. camera.
